High School Pupils are Entertained

A Halloween party was given Monday evening at the cozy little cottage of the Misses Nablo and Collins. All of the High School students were entertained in a most enjoyable manner, games of every description were played and the cottage was decorated in a most picturesque manner with jack-o-lanterns and many other Halloween novelties. Delicious refreshments were served and about 11:30 the jolly High School party departed for their respective homes. The party was given by Miss Nablo who is assistant principal and teacher of the High School, in honor of the pupils in her room.

Insurrectionary Plot is Discovered

A Brownsville Texas dispatch says: That munitions of war are being concentrated in Brownsville and other Texas towns near the frontier by Mexican revolutionists is declared by Dr. Bangun, Mexican consul here. The plot is being furthered, he declares, by insurrectionary leaders, who have established headquarters in San Antonio and in California. Several days ago the house of a former Mexican army officer was searched but no arms or incriminating papers were found. No reports of a repetition of insurrectionary movement at Cananea or organization at Douglas have come to light and it is presumed no outbreak from Arizona is expected.

Tale of a Mule With Three Tails

Jesus Medina, chief of line riders on the Mexican side of the international boundary, is the possessor of a mule which has the distinction of wearing three tails, according to A. C. Lubert of the Mexican customs service at Agua Prieta. The infant progeny occurred Sunday at Caballona, where Medina resides. It is said to be a normal mule colt in all respects except that it disports three caudal appendages where other mules have but one.—Dispatch

From Monday's Daily.

Mrs. T. R. Brandt returned today from a visit with friends at E. Paso.

Judge C. Bell of Courtland is a Tombstone visitor today, on court business.

Mrs. Fannie Adams of Bisbee is visiting Tombstone, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. John Beck.

More Halloween pranks are expected tonight, the parties of the month. The Halloween revelers have displayed an activity that has been notably zealous in Tombstone in their observance of All Saint's day.

Rev. M. C. Needham returned today from Warren, where he occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church yesterday in place of Rev. Riley, who preached in Tombstone yesterday for Rev. Mr. Needham and in Benson last evening.

There were no services at the Episcopal church yesterday.

In Tombstone on a Brief Visit

W. A. Wallace, western representative of the Bunker Hill company's interests arrived in the city yesterday and has been shaking hands with his many friends here, who cordially welcomed him. Mr. Wallace has been making extensive investigations of a Mexico mining proposition for his company for the past month, his researches having been exclusively devoted to examination of some valuable mining concessions in the state of Durango, Mex. Mr. Wallace will remain here several days before again returning across the line.

San Pedro Being Stocked With Fish

United States Horticultural Catalog No. 5 passed through Fairbank yesterday and was dropped at the home ranch of the Boquillas Land & Cattle company's side track, having a consignment of thirty gallon tanks of various species of fish which will be planted in the reservoir and dams belonging to the company on the San Pedro. This consignment of fish was expected many months ago, but owing to some unforeseen circumstance did not arrive.

Social Affair Last Saturday Evening

One of the jolliest and novel social affairs of the Halloween season was the dancing party given at Gage Hall Saturday evening by Mrs. H. C. Kinley and Miss Eva Wootton in honor of the High School students. The hall was attractively decorated with Tombstone High School pennants. The laughable feature of the event was the costumes of those participating. The dancers wore their clothes backward and had a mask attached on the back of their heads, making it appear they were dancing backwards. Some of the High School boys had planned their costumes in a most comical shape, furnishing much amusement among the happy crowd. Refreshments were served. The dancing began at 8 o'clock, immediately after the grand march, which was led by Miss Lillian Choate and Melvin Swain, and continued until 11 o'clock. The music was furnished by Simpson's orchestra.

"A Chiel's Amang Ye Takin' Notes"

F. W. DeCrox is a Tombstone visitor from Bisbee on a tour of the territory. Mr. DeCrox is "one of those newspaper fellows," being a journalist of long experience and training and by nature and inclination a thorough reporter. He is a recent visitor to Arizona and it is needless to say he is delighted with the new state. He may conclude to locate in Arizona and lend his efforts to furthering her claims of limitless resources for public attention and recognition.

Will Retire From the Army

Advice reached Prescott yesterday from the East that Col. Alex. Brodie U. S. army, stationed at Ft. Paul, Minn., will retire from active duty next month, at the age limit of 65 years, according to the Journal Miner. Colonel Brodie entered the army from West Point in 1869, and after several years in the service, resigned. He was stationed at Camp Apache, and returned to this section after the Nez Perce war in the north. He was well known to all in this city and county, and at the breaking out of the Spanish American war tendered his services and was appointed major in the First Volunteer Cavalry, known as the Rough Riders. Later he was appointed Governor of Arizona, and subsequently returned to the Regular army.

Sunday In Tombstone Churches

CONGREGATIONAL

The theme of Rev. Deck, pastor, at 11 a. m. was "An Old Testament Vol. 1," and in the evening "Is the Young Man Safe." Both services were well attended.

The Sunday school had an attendance of 71 and the banner still remains with "Miss Astell's class of 1915."

The Christian Endeavors subject was "What our Denomination is Doing For Missions." Miss Helen Benedict, the leader made a splendid ten minute address on the topic giving facts and figures on the mission work in Arizona and elsewhere.

METHODIST

Rev. E. D. Lahey of Bisbee occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church, at 11 a. m., and preached an eloquent sermon on Sunday School missions. Rev. Riley is the superintendent of Sunday school missions for Arizona, being appointed to this position by the M. E. conference recently held at Williams.

The recently organized Epworth League held a very interesting meeting at 7 o'clock and was led by Miss Adair Landers.

Dr. G. H. Adams of Phoenix, who makes occasional visits to Tombstone and, has many friends here was present and delivered an address on the topic, Able.

The Sunday School had the usual attendance.

CATHOLIC

Mrs. Cavanaugh superintendent of the Sunday School reports a large increase in attendance within the last few weeks, and states it to be progressing nicely.

EPISCOPAL

There were no services at the Episcopal church yesterday.

San Pedro Being Stocked With Fish

United States Horticultural Catalog No. 5 passed through Fairbank yesterday and was dropped at the home ranch of the Boquillas Land & Cattle company's side track, having a consignment of thirty gallon tanks of various species of fish which will be planted in the reservoir and dams belonging to the company on the San Pedro. This consignment of fish was expected many months ago, but owing to some unforeseen circumstance did not arrive.

The car the fish were shipped in is a private affair, built on the order of a passenger coach with living apartments within and an engine in one end which furnishes the necessary ventilation, power for lights, etc. This car was recently at Roosevelt, where many gallons of fish were planted in the Roosevelt dam by the government, under the direction of the department of agriculture and the reclamation service.

Reduced Rates for Phoenix Fair Week

The El Paso & Southwestern Railroad company has announced a special rate to Phoenix on account of the Sixth Annual fair. From Tombstone one fare for the round trip, $8.10, is announced, with privilege of checking 150 pounds of baggage. No stopovers allowed.

To Figure Out Mineral Wealth

Publication of the census returns for the territory of Arizona presents opportunity for figuring out a person's mineral wealth that is probably not exceeded in any part of the world. The official figures place the population at 104,544, which by the way, is an increase of 66.2 per cent in ten years, and we already know that the production of copper for last year was close to 300,000,000 pounds and the total mineral production in round figures, worth $65,000,000. Thus it is easy to arrive to the conclusion that every man, woman and child in the new copper state theoretically produces an average of 1466 pounds of refined copper a year, worth, at 13 cts a pound, about $191.58, while the production of other minerals brings the total annual creation of new wealth up to the respectable total of $225 per capita.

Visitors to the United States Land and Irrigation Exposition at Chicago will observe each day a Western Union night letter posted near the Arizona exhibit. The night letter will give the lowest and highest temperature and the state of the weather generally in Arizona for the 24 hours previously. This is a cold climate, it is believed, will be something of an exhibit itself. The night letters will be sent by Harry Welch secretary of the Phoenix board of trade.

Being Conducted On Its Merits

The Tombstone municipal campaign continues to glide along in the even tenor of its way. Up to date no speechmaking has been indulged in, the blazing of bonfires has not been particularly noticeable, nor has any exciting campaigning characterized the movement or either organization. It would appear probable that a tacit agreement among the nominees exists to the extent that each man is expected to "vote his own skill" and that otherwise the city election is to be conducted strictly on its merits.

Peanuts Will Prove Lucrative Local Crop

That the cultivation of peanuts is attracting the attention of ranchers in this vicinity as well as those of the San Pedro valley, is probably not as well known as the importance of what is destined in time to be a leading industry would justify. Probably the largest area planted this year to the wholesome "gobern" in this locality was on Irwin & Son's ranch, near town. The success of the experiment was so marked that it is probable a large acreage will be cropped next year.

Those familiar with the growing of peanuts have expressed the opinion that our soils are well adapted for the cultivation of the ground pea, and the prediction is freely made that within a short time the shipment of goobers from a Cochise county will be one of our important industries.

'Tis Distance That Lends Enchantment

The publication in The PROSPECTOR Saturday of the letter from the two Chicago damsels, who, according to the Nogales Times, penned their missives to the Nogales postmaster, is likely to bring the dear girls several letters from Cochise correspondents who have a yearning, palpitating desire to break into double harness. Though why the amorous swain of "dear old Cochise county" should cast his longing eye toward the Windy City for a help-mate when Arizona possesses so many of Eve's fairest daughters, is hardly understandable. The PROSPECTOR can only account for this seeming contradiction on the theory that distance not only lends enchantment to the view but it has a tendency to enhance the beauty of the prospective feminine in the imaginations of those of our young men who think they may be one of the fortunate chosen.

From Tuesday's Daily

Seth Merrill, the well known mining man from Johnson, is among the citizens in the city serving the county as trial juror.

J. P. Coulter arrived in Tombstone from his home in Pearce having business in the county east pertaining to court.

Mrs. C. A. Pounds of Douglas is a Tombstone visitor for a fortnight and will visit with friends in this city.

George Hanniger, one of the prominent citizens of Bakersville, is a Tombstone acting in the capacity of a territorial trial juror.

H. Kramer of Bisbee is among the Beebees who has been summoned to Tombstone to act as a trial juror.

James Herron, one of the owners of the Herron addition to the town of Courtland, is among the court attendants in the city from the new Cochise county copper camp. He will be in town for several days.

Attorney George H. Neal, ex mayor of Bisbee, returned to his home in the big copper camp this morning after a brief legal visit. He will return next week.

Mrs. F. H. Zimmerman is visiting friends in Tombstone for several days from her home in Douglas.

Miss Grace Hicks left for Douglas yesterday, where she will take a course in Draughton's Business college.

W. D. Jones of Bisbee is among those called to Tombstone on the special venire of jurors. It is expected that Mrs. Jones will arrive next week and remain in the county seat during Mr. Jones' service in the interest of Uncle Sam.

Miss Jessie Porter was united in marriage to Alpheus Newkirk today at the Congressional parsonage, Rev. Dock officiating. The newly wedded couple are residents of Bisbee. They will spend the honeymoon in California.

Thos. Habersack arrived today from Bisbee, this being his first day out of the hospital after a three months' siege from a broken hip, sustained by a fall. Mr. Habersack is able to be out only with the careful aid of crutches. He left this afternoon for the Habersack ranch in the Dragoons.

Ernest Frey who is down sick with typhoid fever is on the road to recovery—word has been received that Mr. Frey's mother who is on a visit to Salt Lake City is also down sick in bed.

Tombstonites are buying lands in the Everglades of Florida, several purchasers intending to remove there in the next year—they will send a representative down this month to see their holdings.

Tombstone schools are now running smoothly with the full complement of scholars and many families have come into town to give their children the benefit of Tombstone's excellent school facilities.

There has been a shifting in the homes of the various lodges and clubs of the city. The Cochise club a social organization which has had a checkered career of success for the last three years has ceased to exist and the Woodmen have taken their home to the Cochise rooms. The Red Men have left the K. of P. Hall and are now domiciled in the old drug store building opposite the Post Office.

Archie Chisholm was among the arrivals this morning from Benson, having matters pending before the district court which demand his attention at this time.

Quail and duck are reported plentiful on the San Pedro river near Charleston.

Mart Moore, for many years driver of the M. & S. stage plying between Tombstone and Fairbank below the El Paso & Southwestern built into the city seat, arrived last evening from home in Pearce, having been summoned here on court matters. Mr. Moore has been busy ever since his arrival renewing old acquaintances and shaking hands with his many Tombstone friends.

M. J. Brown, the well known Bisbee attorney, is visiting the county seat for several days, having legal matters pending before the district court which demand his attention.

Mrs. Jas. McHugh returned home today from Bisbee, where she has been on a two weeks' visit to her daughters, Mrs. Frank Coles and Mrs. Harry Daly.

Esteemed People Bid Tombstone Farewell

Charles Bowman, who for the past eight years has held the position of city attorney of Tombstone, left today with his wife for Phoenix, where they will in future reside. Mr. Bowman will enter into partnership with Fen S. Hildreth, former receiver U. S. Land office, in the legal business at the Capital City, and the well known ability and popularity of the two men will make them one of the strongest in the territory.

Mr. Bowman has been associated for the past five years in Tombstone with Col. Neil Rickert, and they have been identified as attorneys with some of the most important cases that have come before the courts of Arizona. Mr. Bowman is a man of splendid legal attainments, and this added to an extremely engaging personality and indefatigable industry and resourcefulness has won for him high rank in his chosen profession. He is yet young in years, and with the opportunities that will be open to him when Arizona becomes one of the galaxy of states, THE PROSPECTOR feels safe in predicting for him not only a successful, but a brilliant future career.

THE PROSPECTOR, as well as the host of friends Mr. and Mrs. Bowman have made during their residence of nearly ten years in Tombstone, sincerely regrets the departure of these estimable people, and the best of wishes will attend them in their Phoenix home, and wherever their lot may be cast.
